

No, no, no ! I'm not looking forward to have rain falling down.....

Sometime ago, my little girl chose a wonderful color for one of her bedroom wall. The color was called "Blue sky". She asked me if I could sew her some clouds. "That will make as if I look at the sky..." said she.

Here I am then..... A white cotton fabric, stuffing, the shape of cloud drawn with the hand....and a little dance of the rain later, here come the clouds!

My little stargazer was right....It's just like looking at the sky....I love her so much.....
