

ASSESSMENT CONTRACT

Please find a list below of basic language errors which are NOT acceptable at your level in English anymore.

Here are included basic errors that you can't make from now on.

01. Grammar

- To + Verb: this is an INFINITIVE. You need to conjugate it in a sentence
- MAY/ MIGHT/ CAN/COULD/ SHOULD/ WOULD / WILL/ ETC. are modals: that means they are NEVER followed by an infinitive
- In the present tense, you must add an 's' at the third person: HE/SHE/IT
- HE/SHE/IT can be followed by: doesn't, hasn't, isn't
- It's means 'it is' and its means what belongs to 'it'
- You never start a sentence with an infinitive: you use an ING form
- Adjectives NEVER take an 'S' when in the plural form and are positioned BEFORE the noun
- 'Il y a' in English is: there is + singular or there are + plural
- 'qui' in English is translated as 'who' when you talk about a HUMAN being, 'which' for anything else
- Adverbs (they are linked to the verb) for example, normally, sometimes, often, never, always etc. are positioned BEFORE the verb
- The preposition 'FOR' is followed by a verb with ING
- SINCE + date and FOR+ a period of time preceded by Present Perfect
- EVERY / EACH are followed by singular nouns.
- Names of institutions (Congress, the Supreme Court, the House of Representatives) start with a capital letter.
- Nouns referring to CONCEPTS (liberty, life, freedom of speech ...) are not preceded by 'the.'

02. Vocabulary

- Words to AVOID: interesting/ important/good/ bad/ difficult
- Actual/ actually is different from current/ currently
- Prefer main to principal

ASSESSMENT CONTRACT

- Prefer to suggest/ offer to 'to propose'
- Prefer to allow and NOT to 'to permit'
